

I am a foundation governor voted onto the governing body by the Parochial Church Council of the Bottesford with Ashby Parish.

I was an interim governor during the planning and building of the school and after a short break I am back as governor.

I was a primary school teacher for many years and a supply teacher and governor at St Hugh's for many years before retiring.