PATRON OF READING

Alec Williams, our Patron of Reading, was in school last week telling Reception and Key Stage One stories to inspire them with reading and their writing. The children really enjoyed listening to him, and have written some great stories about Queens following his visit. Have a look at the photos on Twitter.

PARENTS' EVENINGS

It was great to see you all in school for Parents' Evenings last week, sharing all the great work, your children have completed so far this school year and discussing the progress they have made with their class teacher. If you did not manage to make an appointment, please contact the school office or your child's class teacher, so that we can arrange a meeting at a suitable time. Thank you everyone that supported the book fair, it supports our books in school for the children.

SCHOOL CHOIR

The children in the school Choir will be singing during the service at St Paul's Church, Ashby at 9.30am on Sunday 13th May, please come along to join us if you can, as part of our St Peter and St Paul family – we would love to see you there.

WARMER WEATHER

The weather is becoming warmer, so can we please ask children to bring a hat and a water bottle to school. Staff cannot apply sunscreen to the children, so we recommend parents applying sunscreen each morning before school. School shoes should still be worn in the warm weather and not open toed sandals please, for health and safety reasons. Many thanks.

GRANPA'S GREAT ESCAPE

Our Year 4 children have been working hard this week to re-enact Grandpa's Great Escape, the David Walliams book and film, working alongside Sarah Tipler and Emma Wilkinson, from North Lincolnshire council. Our children will be going to The Valleys, care home to perform the story for local residents, where it will be filmed and then entered into a national competition with Shakespeare's Schools Foundation. One lucky school will be visited by David Walliams himself to bring copies of his books to school and meet the children. Fingers crossed it's us! He has already liked out Tweet!
