GDPR

I am sure you have all heard about the new General Data Protection Regulations, we have had to review some of our procedures and systems in line with these and need your support. We usually send our data collection sheets out annually in book bags, but can no longer do this. We have updated some with parents, who attended the parent information sessions at the beginning of term, if we did not catch you, there will be school staff in the office area with forms to check from 8.50am – 9.15 each morning next week, if you could pop in to check the details we hold for your children, if not we will catch you at parent's evenings in November. Reception parents your information is up to date, so no need to check. Also under GDPR guidance please ensure there is no mobile photography on the school site.
